Jessica DiSabatino is a communicator in both business environments and the church. She is theologically deep and yet able to connect with her audiences through her candid humour and her understanding of what it means to be human in this chaotic and messy world. Following the death of her younger brother, Jess and her dad founded MySafe-Work, a philanthropic initiative that brings justice to workplaces in Canada and around the world.

In tandem with her foundation work, Jess has pastored in various churches for more than twenty years and currently serves at Journey Church in Calgary, Alberta.

Ty is the Worship Community & Young Adults Pastor at Bethel Gospel Tabernacle in Hamilton, ON. He has been serving the church in Canada through worship ministry for nearly 20 years.

He's husband to his beautiful wife Tanya, and father to their beloved 3-year old, Elora. In his free time, he likes to quote movies, spend too much time in guitar shops, and argue over which chocolate milk brand is best. Ty grew up spending his summers at Braeside and is very excited to lead alongside the Bethel worship team for Family Camp!

Pastors Ben and Emma Narayanan are the Lead Pastors of Avant Life Church. As leaders, both Pastor Ben and Emma are passionate about sharing the message of Christ through boldness, innovation and creativity.

After hearing the clear call from God, they moved from Canberra, Australia to North Vancouver to pioneer Avant Life Church with their three amazing children Levi, Alice and Eden. Their hearts for people, leadership development and community engagement have helped establish Avant Life Church as a thriving and transformational Christ centred community across three locations.

BEN & EMMA NARAYANA

Andrew is the Executive Pastor at the Embassy Church in Oshawa. From a young age, Andrew felt the call of God on his life for Christian ministry.

Andrew has pastored for over 20 years in the GTA and he is most passionate about worship and seeing people come together to worship God with one voice and sound. Andrew and his beautiful wife, Laura, have three children, Ethan, Elijah, and Hannah and reside in Whitby, ON.
